NEWS RELEASE

Capital Murder Investigation

On March 06, 2007, San Antonio Police responded to 1302 W. Winnipeg for a found body call (SAPD case #70-166197). When officers arrived, they were told that a plastic bag containing a young child was discovered underneath 1302 W. Winnipeg. Neighbors discovered the bag when investigating a foul odor. Another plastic bag was discovered in the same area underneath the house, but the contents of the second bag will not be known until the medical examiner has an opportunity to conduct their investigation.

At this point in the investigation, SAPD investigators are awaiting the autopsy results from the Bexar County Medical Examiner's Office. Currently, the sex, age and identity of the child are not known. This information is preliminary with more details to follow as it becomes available.
